

Hamilton, ON

Crisis Intervention Worker – Evenings - Reference #004

The Native Women's Emergency Shelter Centre provides a secure, empowering environment for women and children fleeing domestic violence and for women suffering from chronic homelessness, addiction or human trafficking. The Crisis Intervention Workers provides crisis intervention and emergency shelter services in accordance with Native Women's Centre policies and procedures and maintains a professional relationship while working as an effective member of the team.

Responsibilities:

- Conduct intake of new clients
- Provide input and participate in client Plan of Care
- Maintain client files; update as required
- Maintain a safe and secure environment for clients
- Maintain client confidentiality in accordance with policies and procedures
- Perform household tasks as related to the management of a shelter residence
- Prepare light meals or snacks as required

Qualifications:

- A diploma in Social Services or related field is required
- Previous work experience in an emergency shelter is an asset
- An understanding of indigenous history, culture, teachings and healings is an asset
- Must have the ability to perform light cleaning, laundry and cooking duties while on shift

Forward your resume and insert the position and reference number in the subject line or on fax cover sheet to:

Dixie Doxtador, Program Manager
Native Women's Centre
1900 King St. East PO Box 69036
Hamilton, ON L8K 1W0
FAX: (905) 664-1101
vawpm@nativewomenscentre.com

Thank you to all applicants applying; only those chosen for an interview will be contacted.